Mr Craig Young – Mr “Solva” IRONMAN!

Craig competed in the IRONMAN Wales competition on Sunday 15 September, which began on Tenby's North Beach, providing one of the most spectacular swim locations on the race circuit. Then followed challenging bike and running courses, while the athletes were treated to consistent and motivating inspiration from some of the most vocal and enthusiastic spectators! Craig's time was 15:45:24 putting him in 248/280 place and he helped raised £1100 for “Get the Boys A Lift” a not-for-profit organisation that works to raise mental health awareness among people who are “just about managing”, based in Haverfordwest. A fantastic effort from Craig for all those months of training!

Solva Fireworks Display - Friday 1 November (or in case of bad weather on Saturday 2 Nov).

The judging of the Guy competition will take place at 6.30 pm outside the Harbour Inn with the main firework display beginning at 7 pm. The event is free for all to attend and enjoy but its continuation relies on donations, so if you see one of our volunteers with Hi-Vis jacket and official collecting bucket along the way please give anything you can - every penny matters.

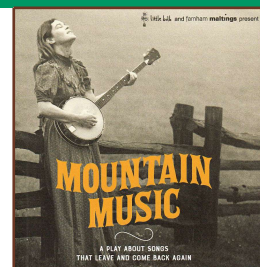

In case of bad weather a decision to cancel will be made before 4pm and announced on facebook.

Guy Competition - This year we'll be holding a Guy Competition along with the main fireworks event with a first prize £30, 2nd prize £20 and 3rd prize £10. This is a free to enter competition aimed at children (limit of 1 entry per child). The guy should be built of clean, dry materials such as paper, straw etc and brought by the child and supervising adult to the front of the Harbour Inn before 6.15pm on the day, with judging starting at 6.30 pm. No specific theme has been set but it might be wise to avoid anything rude or politically charged. Rules & Regs: any guy unsuitable due to design, construction or representation will be disqualified. The decision of the judges is final and all entrants are asked to take their guy with them after the judging has finished.

Night Out - “Mountain Music”

We are very pleased to welcome Farnham Maltings back to Solva with a Little Bulb production of Mountain Music. Many of you will remember The Iranian Feast, How to build a Rocket, Miracle on 34th Street and It's a Wonderful Life. Mountain Music traces the story of pioneers from Britain settling in the Appalachian Mountains and how songs from “the old country” took on a new life amidst the new land. The production is on Friday 1 November at 7.30pm in the Memorial Hall. Tickets, £10 (£5 for children, students and disabled) please call Carol Ann on 07970 614233.

Solva WI

Ahead of our September meeting, a few members very much enjoyed a visit with lunch and a walk at the Cilgerran Wildlife Centre. Jilly Missen was thanked for such a well-organised outing and the rain certainly didn't dampen our spirits!

Our meeting was held in the Hall as usual and, amongst items discussed, were various dates for PFWI events including the Annual Council Meeting on Saturday 23 November and a Miscellany Craft Day on Saturday 9th and Friday 15 November. It had been agreed that our monthly raffle would be for the patchwork quilt which was on show, it was made by Pembrokeshire members to raise funds in order to revamp the Pembrokeshire room at Denman College. Mary Haughton, our President, asked members to consider joining the committee to ensure continuation of Solva WI - the election happens at the Annual Meeting in November which starts at 1pm with a soup lunch.

The "Flower of the Month" was won by Vee Hopkins. After tea, we enjoyed a trio of "fun activities" including a quiz with answers starting with the letters WI, a Bug Bingo and a Dragon Drive.

The winner of the Jean Platt Trophy was Jenny Jones. Mary Haughton was thanked for providing such an entertaining "competition". Our Christmas Dinner is booked for Thursday 5 December at the "Cambrian Inn" in lower Solva.

The next meeting is on Thursday 10 October when Tracy Olin will talk on the work of PATCH.

Pointz Castle Ice Cream will be holding a Macmillan Coffee Morning on Saturday 5 October, from 11am - 1pm.

Please come and join us and support this amazing cause.

Yoga Classes

Hatha Akhanda yoga in Solva Memorial Hall, Tuesdays 6-7.30pm, is suitable for all levels. £10 per class for 5 week trial period. Next class Tuesday 1 October.

Singing for Solva Care

Solva turned out in force on Monday 16 September to hear some of the Solva Singing for Fun group (and friends from other groups) raising the Roof for Solva Care. Highlights? Well, Oes gafr eto for one! And the fact that £228 was raised for Solva Care. A big thank you to everyone for coming along - and to the wonderful Tom for single-handedly serving the best refreshments in the history of SfF concerts. Rehearsals for the Christmas Concert (on Monday 16 December at 7.30pm in aid of Wales Air Ambulance) are now underway... and new singers are always welcome. You won't know whether or not it's your thing unless you come along and see!

Solva Shopping

Save the date! Solva Shopping Evening will be on Wednesday 4 December. Window on Wales will be open until 7.30pm, with mulled wine and special offers. Plenty more will be happening in businesses in Lower Solva. For more information or to get involved, pop into Window on Wales or email Bella bellap@tiscali.co.uk

Ysgol Penrhyn Dewi

On Friday 20 September many Ysgol Penrhyn Dewi pupils and staff were proud to attend the gathering at the Cross Square in St Davids, in support of the Strike for Climate Change Campaign, inspired by Swedish schoolgirl Greta Thunberg. The School Senedd has climate change high on its agenda this year along with sustainability of the planet and is working towards becoming an eco-friendly school.

Congratulations to year 6 pupil, Billy who finished 7th overall in the Ping (Golf) Welsh Junior Tour Final last weekend. Billy has maintained his 7th position in Wales for 2019 from a starting group of over 200 players and the final over the weekend of the top 20. Da iawn Billy.

Make Solva Sparkle.

Back in May we introduced the idea of a living advent calendar in Solva during December. We were told of a successful event in Penally village near Tenby in 2018. Meanwhile the summer has flown by and now we are planning another meeting in the Memorial Hall on Thursday 17 October following coffee. We are really keen to make this a success and hope that those who came to the original meeting plus many more will join us.

The idea is that each night between 1st and 24th December decorated windows are lit up in various parts of the village. You can choose the day you wish to start and the theme of your window, It does not have to be religious but should have a festive feel. The window needs to be visible from the road and well lit. Details will be given on Thursday 17 October. We would like all ages and all parts of the village to be involved so please come to the meeting and help to Make Solva Sparkle in 2019. Lena (07805 717556) and Carol Ann (01437 721374).

Four Big Books Update...

The Odyssey, The Iliad, The Bible, The Koran - four books that have influenced how we think, what we believe and how we behave. I am offering a series of seminars with the aim of looking at these four books, considering how they came to be and their impact and influence on us as works of Literature. If you would be interested in attending a course of about 8 sessions, the first is on Monday 30 September starting at 2pm, in Solva Memorial Hall. Please get in touch if you can make an evening session and further information. Many thanks Mollie Roach 01437 721580.

We are delighted to confirm that over £1800 has been raised from the 2019 Coast Path Challenge. Thank you to everyone for your support - in footsteps and in donations. Brilliant effort all round! Don't forget the special event in St Davids Cathedral on Friday 18 October, starting at 7.30pm, when the Haverfordwest Male Voice Choir, Goodwick Youth Brass Band & Ysgol Penrhyn Dewi will be presenting a feast for your ears... do come and support such talented local musicians. Tickets available from St Davids Bookshop and on the door.

Solva Regatta 2019 Update

The sun shone on the 131st regatta. Having juggled three events during the summer holidays in previous years, and after a fair bit of consultation in the newsletter and around the pubs (where all the good decisions are made) the committee decided to experiment - combining adult (inshore) and children's regattas. This made for a really packed day, with plenty going on for spectators to watch and some great sportsmanship. Feedback has been favourable, but the committee will be looking hard, over the next few meetings, at lessons to be learnt and improvements to be made. We'd welcome your comments – find us on Facebook Solva Regatta and Raft Race page.

Victor Ludorum winners were (pictured): Joe Roulston (child), Hattie Roulston (youth) and Oliver Jones (adult). Congratulations to all who took part. Other highlights included the rowing races and in particular the closely fought single oared sculling. Witty commentary was provided by Mike Williams and Peter Wilde, who entertained the crowd while simultaneously managing to get competitors to the right areas – no mean feat.

Thanks to our main sponsors: Webzer, Hedley Asset Management and GMF Motors; thanks too for generous support from local businesses and individuals. Thanks to Paddle West for the hire of boats. Our volunteer water safety cover was enhanced by Porthmawr Surf Lifesaving. First aid cover was provided by Pegasus, who thankfully could spend the day watching proceedings, while Louise at Café on The Quay catered for our thirst and hunger. Thank you. We hope everyone enjoyed the day and we are very grateful for your support.

It has been all systems go in our fight to buy the Farm for the community. The Steering Group has been busy writing a business plan for a Bank loan, and also a funding plan for PCC. Donations can be made through our website and soon we will be announcing how our supporters can invest through seed loan funding. The fight is not over though. We will be up against private developers in bidding for the farm and must have our offer in by the end of October: a sum likely to be in excess of £500K.

Following our community meeting on 28 August some of you said a letter template would be useful to guide you in writing a letter of support to PCC. Friday Club:

Week 1 - Autumn term began with Tom Thumb's magic performance. Tom enthralled, enraptured and bewildered us all, mesmerizing even the most diligent of observers, who failed to discern how, through skilful techniques and superb performance Tom managed to fox us.

Tom also serenaded us on piano during the break after we had all signed a card wishing both he and Lou "Bon Voyage" for their imminent sail around the world.

Helen's yoga and gentle movement transported us to a lovely relaxing world of peace and tranquility, at the same giving us the opportunity to exercise our body and help retain suppleness of movement.

Week 2 - Once more the Solva Pirates provided a concoction of songs, soloists and audience participatory tunes that actively encouraged rhythmic, collaborative and memory recall, as well as creating great fun. Helen's Gentle movement/yoga sessions, now featuring every Friday Club second-half session, helped swell numbers of clients, performers, volunteers and helpers to 28.

Forthcoming Friday Clubs: Ceri's Craft, and Brenda and Fran's Drama sessions followed by Helen's Gentle movement sessions are programmed for the last two weeks of September. Helen will continue with half sessions until the end of term.

October begins on 4th with the Solva Ukulele Pirates. On 11 Oct, Fran and Carol-Ann will reminisce and on 18 Oct we welcome the return of Judy, inspiring us with her spirited, energetic and theatrical story telling. Once again Rosita will entertain us with her guitar on 25 October.

Solva's Friday Club welcomes everyone so please join us every Friday from 2pm - 4pm at Solva Memorial Hall.

Edge Festival News

The Edge Festival committee has allocated over £10,000 to the community this year! Solva has once again seen the benefit from holding the biggest voluntary community run festival in Wales. So for those of you who were inconvenienced by the the extra traffic, the noise over the weekend, the additional people in the village, we thank you for your patience. The beneficiaries this year are the Memorial Hall, to help repair the floor in the green room; Solva Church, £250 to help fund a new sound system; Solva Youth Club £1000; £250 to help fund the senior citizens Christmas Lunch; £750 to help meet the legal fees of purchasing the freehold of the football club; £2000 to help fund furniture for the Solva AFC clubhouse the management of which has now been taken over by the Community Council who have formed Solva Community Leisure to look after the interests of the clubhouse and play areas. Money has also been allocated to SCC to pay for the design of a village logo and to fund interpretation boards. These will be strategically placed around the village to introduce the Welsh language to visitors and locals alike. We also thought fit to help support St Davids netball with a £500 donation. £150 was allocated to the AFC to help with their pitch maintenance. In addition, the local RNLI received £400 from the £1 deposit on the glasses scheme!

Edge Festival Bursaries

£2000 has been allocated to award four bursaries of £500 each to deserving young people of the village to help further their careers or life enhancing opportunities. Past recipients have been able to buy laptops to help with studies, meet travel and living expenses associated with college and to fund equipment to help support horse riding ambitions. We are very keen to award these bursaries so please apply if you think you, or someone you know, deserves financial support. The application process is not difficult and we can help you if you are daunted by the thought of filling in forms!

All Change

Ifor and Gill Thomas and Dan Jones are leaving their roles as directors of the Edge Festival. Ifor said, "We have had five great years organising the festival and doing the work to help make it happen, but now it is time for new blood and fresh ideas to take the festival forward, we like to think that we are leaving on a high but we are confident the festival can be even better!"
