Comedy Theatre – Solva Memorial Hall - Friday 13 & Saturday 14 March, curtain up 7.30pm

SADS, appearing as Little Grimley Amateur Dramatic Society, will present two one-act plays "More Tea Vicar, Whoops there go my trousers" centred round the fund raising activities for the local church, and "Last Tango in Little Grimley" where the society is in trouble! They have got to find money to pay the hall rent, or they are out! An evening of humour and chaos. Ticket £6 from Bay View Stores and Window on Wales, plus BYO drinks and nibbles!

Table Tennis – new to the Memorial Hall

The hall has recently been given two tennis tables and purchased the necessary equipment to make them operational. A group is being formed and led by Dave Perry, who is keen to hear from anyone who might be interested. The first meeting will take place on Tuesday 10 March between 3.30pm and 5.30pm. Please contact Dave on 07891 624220 to put your name down.

Coming Soon - Local fresh milk - Available daily at Bay View Stores.

Mount Farm and Solva Community Council "Working for a greener future". Once again Solva proves to be a leader! The Solva Community Council has thrown its weight behind an initiative suggested by Mount Farm. Currently all of the milk from the farm gets transported to North Wales, racking up miles and increasing its carbon footprint. From April there will be a machine at Bay View Stores dispensing fresh, whole milk only a few hours old! The council has agreed to support this green venture by purchasing reusable glass bottles for all our households. The saving in plastic containers will be huge. The farm will reimburse the council for its outlay and then look at how the partnership can be extended. One more step in making our community more sustainable. Support the move to real milk!

Duck Race – Easter Monday 13 April

The world famous Solva Duck race will commence at 3pm on Easter Monday. Try to pick a name of one of the winners, with a chance to win £10, £5 or £2.5 for only a £1/duck name stake. Tickets will be on sale at Bay View Stores, Window on Wales, Royal George, Ship Inn, MamGu Welshcakes, Harbour Inn and No 35. All in aid of Solva Memorial Hall.

Thanks for the send-off – Jamie Smith's Mabon

A big thank you to the 100 stalwarts who braved storm Dennis on Saturday 15 February to say farewell to Mabon. It was certainly a rousing farewell from a group of talented musicians. They have always enjoyed playing in Solva and particularly wanted to thank the appreciative audience. Thanks also to all those who worked hard to make the evening such a success.

Prendergast Bridge

Work is nearing completion on a footbridge over the river in lower Solva that will create a new circuit walk for the community. The footbridge is situated just off the Middle Mill road and will connect the road to Prendergast wood. Thanks to the owner of the field across the river from Prendergast wood we have been able to bridge the river and extend the walking opportunities from the woodland. Walkers can either return to the village along the road, head for Middle Mill or continue along the footpaths that were created in 2016 on the opposite side of the valley to Prendergast wood. The footbridge has been a few years in the planning as it required full planning permission and a flood risk permit but it is very satisfying to see it coming to fruition. The work has been undertaken by local building contractors and has been funded by Bluestone National Park Resort. It will be promoted by the National Park Authority as one of its website walks, offering people a circuit walk of the village starting at the harbour car park. We are aiming to get the route open by Easter as there are improvements we need to do in the woodland and on the approaches to the bridge. It is hoped to officially open the bridge this month.

Shalom House

We will be holding a fundraising "Afternoon Tea" on Saturday 28 March in the City Hall St Davids, from 3-5pm. We warmly invite you to join us - maybe get a small group together to have your own table with friends? Your ticket, presented on arrival, will give you automatic entry into the Prize Draw with the opportunity of winning a makeover with Nigel at Reinvention (Crug Glas). Further delights on offer include a delicious tea made by our cook Julie, with the added attraction of our volunteers and staff serving you - dressed in outfits from our shalom@no.13 preloved Occasion Wear Shop. If you haven't had the chance to see what's for sale in our new shop, this is your opportunity. Come and see the high-quality clothing beautifully presented by our fantastic volunteers. Tickets are £12.50 available from the shop in St Davids and Shalom House.

New running group in St Davids

A new friendly, chatty, running group has started in St Davids. The group aims to provide local people with a regular chance to get out running with a group of like minded people, aiming to get fit, meet new people and socialise. The group meets at 6.30pm every Tuesday outside the City Hall and usually runs a distance of between 5k and 10k. Further info: email stdavidsrunning@gmail.com or follow us on Twitter - @stdavidsrunning.

Pembrokeshire County Council wishes to engage with, support and encourage members of the public to communicate with PCC via digital means, mainly the "My Account" website. A PCC customer services rep will be accompanying the Mobile Library which will visit Solva on Friday 13 March from 1-1.30pm (opp St Aidans church). This will be an opportunity to learn about the "My Account" and its services.

Caught on Camera?

An enquiry to PCC: "As you enter Solva from St Davids there is a camera posted on a pole on the RH side. Please advise to the function of this camera, and is it linked to the speed awareness sign situated close by?" The reply was: "The camera is a Dyfed Powys Police ANPR camera, which I understand they use in relation to monitoring traffic movement for crime and disorder related issues, as required."

Solva Community Land Trust

Members of the SCLT made a visit to Eco-housing in Rhosygilwen and Boncath. Both these developments are the brain child of Ty Solar, a company run by Glen Peters who is also an arts entrepreneur who runs a successful music and performance venue at Rhosygilwen. It was impressive to see houses which require almost zero energy to run. We see this as a model for Solva, to answer housing needs and tackle climate change. The CLT will shortly be registered as a Community Benefit Society and soon there will be a meeting with the three members of the contract, SCLT, PCC and ATEB housing association, to make progress on this trail blazing project, the first of its kind in Wales. Next month you will get a housing needs questionnaire to answer, so that we can determine the mix of housing.

St. Davids Festival of Ideas

On 24, 25 and 26 April St Davids will host the inaugural Festival of Ideas. The event will feature speakers who are experts in their fields, both provocative and inspiring. The Festival, however, will not be just about sitting and listening. There will be opportunities to interrogate the speakers and other attendees and discuss the burning issues of our time, how they affect the world and what we, locally, can do to influence events. The list of speakers includes Paul Mason, an independent journalist who has regularly featured on Newsnight. He was Culture and Digital Editor of Channel 4 News becoming the programme's Economics Editor and will talk about his new book "A Clear Bright Future". There will be a debate between Adam Price of Plaid Cymru and David Melding, a Conservative, entitled "Independence vs Unionism". This will be chaired by Simon Jenkins of the Guardian, the Festival will also cover well-being and spirituality with a session led by the Dean of St Davids Cathedral, supported by the poet Mererid Hopwood. "How local action leads to results" will be the subject of a talk by Mollie Roach of Solva Care, an organisation that is leading the way on how communities can ensure the well-being of their inhabitants whilst fighting isolation and loneliness. No current discussion can ignore the environmental crisis facing us and Dr Sarah Beynon of our local Bug Farm and Andy Middleton, driving force behind the "Do" lectures, will address these issues. These are just some of the speakers we have secured. It will be a festival to provoke thought and action, whilst enjoying the company of interesting people with interesting food to supplement the food for thought. Join us, be amazed, and influence the way

We had an outing to Theatr Gwaun on 30 January to watch "Carousel" which was enjoyed by all. There is one more cinema outing for this month on Thursday 26 March with a screening of "Easter Parade". Bws y Bobl will depart from the Memorial Hall at 11.45am on the day and there will be tea and sandwiches at the theatre before the film starts at 1 pm. The bus will return to Solva at around 4 pm. Please contact Lena on 07805 717556 if you would like to come along.

Repair shed project

At the February meeting, Solva Community Council agreed to start talks with the County Council with a view to buying the Football Club (now called the Solva AFC Community Hub) and the land on which it is sited. If the purchase goes ahead, the Community Council have also agreed that Solva Care can use part of the site as a base for our Repair Shed Project - watch this space for further news!

Friday Club – What's been going on so far?

In January members shared memories with a screen presentation from Brenda, Lena and Sandra.

The following week Ceri created inspirational napkin covered jars. February kicked-off with the Cathedral Hand bells group sharing nursery rhyme memories whilst on a bumper Valentine's Day, the Solva Craft group knitted hearts and music was provided by Solva Ukulele Pirates. On Friday 21 Ifor and Gill Thomas presented a music quiz with a difference and Tony Callow's Country and Western performed at Solva AFC Community Hub (the Football Club) the following Friday. In March Nadia has two craft sessions on Friday 6 and Friday 13, the Solva Ukulele Pirates perform on Friday 20 followed by Reminiscing with Carol-Ann on 27 March. After every session Helen continues with her developmental yoga/gentle movement sessions, but sadly we have to say goodbye, and thank you, to Helen B our Activities assistant, who leaves at the end of the month. Thanks to our presenters, volunteers and Lena for helping to organise the events.

St Davids & Solva Surgeries - New Telephone Systems - week commencing 23 March

The Welsh Assembly Government has recently introduced new All-Wales Access standards, in an aim to improve telephone access to GP services across Wales. The new Telephone systems will be able to queue calls, so that patients don't need to make multiple calls to get through. Both Surgeries are therefore having new phone systems installed during the week commencing the 23 March, in order to comply. There may be some very temporary short-term disruption to the phone lines while the installations are taking place. Please bear with us!

Edge Festival 2020 is taking shape.

The committee is planning a fabulous event for the 24 to 26 July festival. Early Bird Tickets are available now at www.edgefestival.co.uk. To avoid paying the online booking fee please contact Helen Thomas at heljthom@hotmail.com.

Most of the bands have been booked with Chasing Mumford playing the Mumford and Sons Experience on the Friday night, the Wild Boys playing the best songs of the 1980s on Saturday and the Kopycat Killers playing The Killers on Sunday. The Bootleg Bee Gees will play the Sunday afternoon legend slot. Please have a look at our beautiful new website to see the full line up as it emerges. We also have a full poetry and literature programme with poets Kate Potts and Abigail Parry, storytellers Peter Stevenson and Deb Winter, of Fishguard Storytellers, and authors Euron Griffith and Daniel Butler. We are also hoping to have the involvement of National Theatre Wales.

You may have noticed that prices are a bit more this year. Our licence now requires 10 security staff instead of 3 and with additional health and safety requirements we have to find an extra £10,000 to put on this year's Festival. The Edge Festival is a charity organisation and it is always a financial challenge, therefore the committee would welcome any donations, which can be given as Gift Aid, to help to make the event a success. Contact Patrick Nash at info@edgefestival.co.uk, if you would like to help.
